

Optional visits during Catalonia Pool Festival

-Monday 22nd: The Wine trip: We'll order picnics at the venue the day before, with this ready we'll travel to one of the main wine regions called Penedès, then visit a vineyard with an explanation of the process from the vine to the bottle, finally we'll try some of the wines and you'll be able to buy some if you wish.

After that we'll have our picnic in a historic place called Santes Creus, with a fantastic view. You'll have time to visit the monastery or enjoy the wines from the region, finally we'll stop at another wine cellar on the way back to the complex.

Links: <http://www.larutadelcister.info/screus.php?lang=en&id=&gal=>

-Tuesday 23rd: Tarragona: An historic view of Tarragona, On 30 November 2000, the UNESCO committee, meeting in the Australian city of Cairns, decided to officially declare the Roman archaeological complex of Tarraco a World Heritage Site.

This recognition is intended to help ensure the conservation of the monuments, as well as to introduce them to the broader international public.

Among the citizens of Tarragona, it has moreover fomented a knowledge of, pride in and respect for the city.

Links: <http://www.tarragonaturisme.cat/>

-Wednesday 24th: Barcelona and Nou Camp: There are various options for today:- A: Travel to Barcelona early in the morning for a tour of the city, B:

Go to Barcelona around 4 o'clock, a quick visit to some parts of the city or, C: Straight to Nou Camp to watch the best football team in the world: Messi, Xavi, Iniesta, Puyol, Ibrahimovic, Henry, Alves, etc. At the moment Barcelona is at the top of the Spanish league and hasn't lost a match since last season, tonight the brave Osasuna will try to break this good run.

Links: <http://www.barcelonaturisme.com/> <http://www.fcbarcelona.com/web/english/>

-Thursday 25th: Karts, Golf, or Quads are some of the choices on offer today. Near the complex are centers offering Quads and Karts for hire as well as a golf course. For the quads check out this site: -

http://www.yumping.com/quads/tarragonagclid=CPu2iNq_1J8CFUIA4wodvSTTcw

For Karting:- http://www.kartingsalou.com/index_en.html

And the nearest Golf course: -

<http://www.golfcostadoradatarragona.com/en/index.htm>

We'll help you to book, and accompany you if you wish, remember that we want that you enjoy your visit here.

-Friday 26th Port Aventura day: A theme park full of action-packed rides from all corners of the globe: imperial China, the Wild West, exotic Polynesia, Aztec México and the mellow Mediterrània.

All the visits have to be booked the day before, except for the Barcelona match and Port Aventura, which have to be booked at least three days before.